SNAC: Make friends – have fun!

Cheryl Owen, the new project co-ordinator would like to welcome you at SNAC.

SNAC- (Special Needs Activity Club) is a purpose built play centre for children and young people aged 0-25 years with special needs. Playworkers facilitate sessions and encourage play opportunities for all.

The centre has indoor and outdoor play areas with specialist play equipment, a multi-sensory room, an arts and crafts room and a gym. A number of trips are organised such as surfing, kayaking, sailing, theme parks and farms etc. The centre also provides support for parents and siblings.

Families access the service via a number of avenues, including referrals from Social Services, signposting from other agencies, open days etc.

There are several clubs available such as
